Call for Submissions:

The Don Kunitz Award for Academic Excellence in Jewish Studies

The Don Kunitz Award honors the best undergraduate work each year, in the following categories: short essay, research paper, creative project, and senior thesis. We will give awards of $100.00 to one student from each category. If you took a JS course between Spring '11—Winter '12 and did well, please consider submitting your work for this award.

How to Submit:

Submit a hardcopy of your paper or creative work to the Jewish Studies mailbox located in the History department mailroom (2216 Social Sciences & Humanities). Attach your full contact information (phone numbers, mailing address, and email address).

* Applications are accepted on an ongoing basis. Deadline: April 13, 2012*
